

Curriculum Vitae

Finn Borch Andersen

Career:

01.04.2013 Commissioner, North Zealand Police
09.01.2012 Commissioner (acting), North Zealand Police
01.01.2007 Deputy Commissioner, North Zealand Police
01.10.2005 Chief Constable (interim), Frederikssund
01.01.2000 Deputy Public Prosecutor, the Public Prosecutor for Serious Economic Crime
01.06.1999 Deputy Public Prosecutor, the Public Prosecutor for Asset Stripping
1996 Senior Assistant Public Prosecutor, the Public Prosecutor in Sønderborg
1995 Assistant Public Prosecutor, the Public Prosecutor in Sønderborg
1994 Assistant Public Prosecutor, the Public Prosecutor on Funen etc.
1993 Assistant Police Prosecutor, the National Commissioner
1991 Assistant Police Prosecutor, the Deputy Commissioner in Odense

Honorary offices:

2013 Chairman of the Police Commissioners Association
2003 - 2011 Union President, Djøf
2001 Chairman of the Assistant Police Prosecutors Association
2000 Member of the board, Public Managers Association (Djøf)
1996 Member of the board, Collective Agreement Association (Djøf)
1995 Chairman of the Assistant Police Prosecutors Association
1993 Member of the board, Assistant Police Prosecutors Association

Teaching experience:

Has taught several courses at Aarhus University, the Police College etc., including: Criminal Law I, Basic Education for Assistant Police Prosecutors, Basic Police Training module I, special courses in financial crime etc., Procedural and Criminal Law, Major Criminal Cases in Practice, Trials in Practice.

Management courses:

2010 Stanford Executive Program, Stanford University, California (SEP)
2007 Management symposium, Singapore
2004 Management symposium, Queens University, Kingston, Canada
2003 Management symposium, Queens University, Kingston, Canada
And various internal courses and post-qualifying education, Djøf Summer University

Education:

1991 Law, University of Copenhagen